

The Peterborough Theological Society Programme 2017-18.

An ecumenical society, open to all.

President: Rev'd. Canon Jonathan Baker.

Meetings are normally held on Wednesdays, 7.30 – 9.15 pm,
at the Friends' Meeting House, Thorpe Road, Peterborough, PE3 6AB.

Parking is available.

Subscriptions: Annual - £20 (couples £30; unwaged students £10); Individual meetings - £4.

2017.

27 September: Dr. Eeva John

Director of Pastoral Studies, Ridley Hall, Cambridge.

In-formation, trans-formation or re-formation? Winds of Change in theological education and the Church.

25 October: Rt. Rev'd. Rupert Hoare

Former Bishop of Dudley.

Faith and society in England at the dawn of modernity: from Hooker to Locke via Milton and Hobbes.

29 November: Rev'd. Dr. David Cornick

Gen. Sec'y of Churches Together in England; fellow of Robinson College, Cambridge.
The Reformation – living with the legacy.

2018.

31 January 31: Dr. Ann Conway-Jones

The Queen's Foundation, Birmingham.

Sibling Rivalry – Early Jewish-Christian relations and their legacy.

28 February: Rev'd. Canon Bill Croft

Priest in Charge, Bretton, Peterborough.

Singing the story: The Psalms in Israel's faith.

21 March: Professor Sarah Coakley

Norris Hulse Professor of Divinity, Cambridge University.

St. John of the Cross: redeeming human nature – confronting the darkness.

25 April: The Montgomery Trust Lecture for 2017-18.

Very Rev'd. Professor Martyn Percy

Dean of Christchurch, Oxford University.

How the truths of Christianity are (mis)represented in the media.

23 May: Rev'd. Canon Mark Oakley

Canon Chancellor, St Paul's Cathedral, London.

Reclaiming the poetry of faith; God, language an experience.

27 June: Very Rev'd. Catherine Ogle

Dean of Winchester.

A reflection on the contribution of women to the ordained ministry and the possibility of hope for the future.

Peterborough Theological Society

PROGRAMME 2017-18

President:

Rev'd Canon Jonathan Baker

Committee:

Professor Paul Ballard

Rev'd Canon Bill Croft

Rev'd Michael Page

Rev'd Canon Michael Soulsby

Dame Mary Tanner, DBE.

The Peterborough Theological Society is an ecumenical society, open to anyone, which aims to provide a platform for theological debate which is challenging both to the lay person and to those with theological training.

Meeting are normally held on the last Wednesday of every month at 7.30 pm.
There are no meetings in July, August or December.

The annual membership subscriptions are:

£20 for an individual member or £30 for couples or families or £10 for unwaged students.

Attendance at individual meetings is £4.

